

Code of Ethics

The practice of photography, both as a science and an art, is worthy of the very best thought and endeavor of all who enter it as a profession.

No untrue or misleading statements shall be made in any way, in any form of business promotion, or regarding our fellow photographers. Customer service complaints must be dealt with honestly, fairly and swiftly. Every effort must be made by the photographer to deliver the services and products promised.

It shall be our duty to impart freely of our knowledge, as an individual and as a organization, so that photography may be raised to higher standards of excellence.

It shall be our duty individually to serve the public to the best of our ability in all matters pertaining to photography.
